Subscribers will save the trouble of letter writing by paying their subscriptions to the Agent at their place.

Correspondents will please send Letters so as to reach us not later than 9 o'clock a. m. Give facts in as few words as possible. If you want news in this department, and not advertising notices or political arguments.

DOVER.

Rev. R. H. Dodson has returned from a visit of several days duration to his parents at Millersburg.

Chance Dickerson dropped dead while at work in his garden yesterday about 5 o'clock. Squire Earnshaw held an examination and pronounced the cause heart failure.

Our contractors seem to be reaping a harvest once again. Three new houses are in course of construction and two more awaiting their turn, to be done up in short order.

J. H. Mathewson, who has been Station Agent for the C. and O. Railway at Dover for two years past, has been appointed agent at Vanceburg in place of George Caywood, resigned. Mr. Mathewson and his estimable family left to-day. His departure was regretted by all who knew him.

MORANSBURG.

Sunday school at the Old Stone Church every Sunday morning at 9 o'clock.

There are several good families near the Postoffice that ought to subscribe for THE DAILY LEDGER.

William Chandler is dangerously ill with lung trouble at the home of his mother, Thomas Chandler.

Nothing stronger than crab cider is sold at the burg since Judge Phister refused to grant beer license.

Elder T. P. Degman will preach at the Christian Church next Saturday night, Sunday at 11 a. m. and Sunday night 8 o'clock.

Uncle Jack Brittain and other Democrats from away back say they are tired of being sold out, and will vote the Republican ticket in November.

ath visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Broshears and claimed for its victim infant daughter. Her remains were at rest in the beautiful burying-ground in Charleston Bottom.

Pay First-class Postage.

sending out invitations of importance should be advisable to inclose them in envelopes, paying two cents postage, in order to receive the attention of the postman, and to save delay in delivery to put on street and number. The merchants and business men beginning to realize that the public is little, if any, attention to a particular, it being third-class matter, most instances never opened by the city has been flooded with and the like one-cent circulars and circulars thus received are to the waste basket or unnoticed treasure.

ntucky Association will meet at Lexington Saturday.

MAJOR D. J. BURCHETT, U. S. Marshal, is President of the Bank of Louisiana.

First Boat in Forty Years.

The first boat that steamed up the Licking river since 1833 landed at the Falmouth wharf Saturday, and to say that town was alive is putting it mildly. The little steamer Henrietta made the trip from Covington. The Government sent her up the river as far as Falmouth to see if it is practicable to spend money on locking and damming the river. As she came in sight with the cannon on her bow booming, it brought the entire populace of the town to the wharf.

Mason County Was Represented.

On the occasion of Senator Brice's "Reception" in Washington City, Miss Margaret Reid Kackley, Mme. Scaldi and Edward Lloyd, vocalists of the first order, came on from New York to delight the company with gems from their operatic repertoires.

Miss Reid was escorted to the banquet hall by President Harrison, and was given a reception by the ladies of the White House afterward. She carried away a pretty bouquet, a gift from the President, as a memento of the evening. Senator Brice's entertainment is said to have been one of the grandest ever given at the National Capital. The floral decorations were never surpassed, the decorations, banquet and other affairs costing the Senator $8,000.

What to Teach a Daughter.

That work is always worthy when well done.

That the value of money is just the good it will do in life; but that she ought to know and appreciate this value.

That the man who wishes to marry her is the one who tells her so, and is willing to work for her, and not the one who whispers silly love speeches, and forgets that men cease to be men when they have no object in life.

Teach her to think well before she says no or yes, but to mean it when she does.

Teach her to avoid men who speak lightly of any of the great duties of life.

Teach her that her own room is her nest and that to make it sweet and attractive is a duty as well as a pleasure.

Teach her to be a woman—self respecting, honest, loving and kind, and then you will have a daughter who will be a pleasure to you always, and whose days will be long and joyous in the land which the Lord hath given her.

A Kentucky Girl Who Shoots.

Miss Bessie Rayburn, who resides four miles from Richmond, is probably the best lady marksman in the state. She can use a rifle or revolver with good and perfect effect, having to her credit many specimens of various scalps. She resides on a splendid farm with her mother, who was left a widow several years ago, and there being no man in the family, it was almost natural for Miss Rayburn to adopt the rifle. She has by practice learned the secret of getting the proper bead with certain firearms, and can with ease, at a long distance, hit a small object squarely. Her nerve is steady. She often brings down the hawk on the wing. Snakes and other harmful reptiles she delights in putting an end to their existence. When the time of year approaches for hog butchering, who must shoot them but this buxom lass? Miss Rayburn is not only an expert with the rifle, but is highly educated, and a lady of many graceful accomplishments. She is the school-mistress of the district in which she resides, and evidently believes in the expansion of the mind as well as physical organs. She belongs to one of the most prominent families in the county, and is regarded as its heroine.
